Consider a particular important intention that you could offer your October rosaries for.

Diaconate Information Session:

Tuesday 21st October. Are you or someone you know interested in exploring a vocation to the Permanent Diaconate? Deacons are ordained ministers of service and compassion in the Church, assisting both in liturgy and in the pastoral and practical life of their communities. An online information session will take place on Tuesday 21st October at 7.00pm, led by the diocesan formation team. The session will offer insight into the role and ministry of deacons and help those discerning a possible calling. Book by scanning this QR code or visiting: www.eventbrite.com/e/are-you-interested-in-becoming-a-deacon-tickets-1802040524719?aff=oddtcreator

Mass Books: Since the Bishops changed the translation of the Mass readings we have been using Mass Sheets. They are convenient and user friendly but also waste paper and costly. We begin a new church year in Advent and there is an invitation to give £10 which will pay for the two Mass books for 2026. Then we will have them forever. More information to follow.

Events in the Archdiocese: Did you know there is a website dedicated to keeping you updated with events and what's going on in the Liverpool Archdiocese? Visit www.liverpoolcatholic.org.uk/events to see if anything piques your interest.
